CONNOISSEUR ART GALLERY. Liberated Chinese women who are unafraid to flaunt their sexuality inspired "China-Star," an exhibition of nudes by collectable Hong Kong master artist Tsui Tin-yun. He explores how the nude has evolved in contemporary Chinese culture by juxtaposing tradition and ethnicity with growing foreign influences. Not to be missed. Through Dec 12. Shop G3, Chinachem Hollywood Ctr., 1 Hollywood Rd., Central, 2868-5358.

MUSEUM 63 / ARTIST COMMUNE. "On Leaving the Shadow World: Paintings and Photo-based Art" is an exhibition by Hong Kong- and French-based painter, photographer and new-media artist Jeffre du Vallier d'Aragon Aranita. He creates works from seemingly random images such as national flags and road construction markings. Tue-Sun 2pm-8pm. Closed Mon. Unit 12, Cattle Depot Artist Village, 63 Ma Tau Kok Rd., Kowloon, 2104 3322.

ZEE STONE GALLERY. Old masters Leonardo da Vinci and Pieter Bruegel the Elder have inspired another "Renaissance," namely an exhibition of paintings by French artist Katarina Monnier. Dec 10-24. Mon-Sat 10am-6:30pm, Sun 1pm-5pm. G/F Yu Yuet Lai Bldg., 43-55 Wyndham St., Central, 2810-5895.
